Lesson 4

Script Title: "I met the most amazing person today"

Emma starts a conversation with a story about an amazing woman she just met.

Emma: I met the most amazing person today!

Shah: Really? Who?

Emma: Her name's Khadija. She was a speaker, at the conference. She's from Somalia but she's had the most incredible life. She's a human rights activist and she's literally helped thousands of women to get an education, to get access to accommodation and to find work.

I think she's almost sixty but you wouldn't know it, she looks so young! And she funded everything by making music!

Shah: Really? She sounds incredible!

Emma: She really is. She speaks so gently but so confidently. I was hanging off every word! She'd been making music with her brother. And they found a way to get their songs online and sell them to Somalis all around the world.

Shah: Wow! They sell their music online?

Emma: Yeah! She was so passionate about her mission and so determined to make it work. I think it took ten years for them to save enough money to set up an office. But from that office they've helped thousands of women to create a better life for themselves. I feel so inspired by what she's done!

Shah: So, do you think you'd like to do something like that?

Emma: I do! I really do! The world needs more people who are as compassionate and selfless and motivated as Khadija, and if she could do it from a place of such poverty and hardship, surely I could do something, couldn't I?

Shah: Definitely!
