

Social Media In Your Classroom

DO's and DON'Ts

DO: Locate and review your school or district's social media guidelines.

DO: Use parental consent/opt-out forms.

DO: Use a separate account for professional use.

DO: Review the privacy settings on any personal social media accounts.

DO: Explain to students & stakeholders how you'll be using social media.

DO: Walk around your classroom and look for any visible student or class information.

DO: Closely review any picture you share before posting.

DO: Look out for name tags and jerseys and keep them out of pictures.

DO: Turn off location services for your phone when taking pictures.

DO: Be mindful of how your posts commercialize your classroom.

DON'T: Start using social media in your classroom if there are no guidelines or consent forms.

DON'T: Share students' faces or names without explicit, parental consent.

DON'T: Make any grades, any assessment, or any part of a student's educational record public.

DON'T: Forget that handwriting is personally identifiable information.

DON'T: Use students' names when naming files.