

25. May / Might / Could

1. Which question is the most formal and polite?

Might I have a glass of water, please?

2. On the last day of school, you may bring your dog to class.

3. We may experience some turbulence in a moment so please fasten seatbelt.

4. If you have any questions you may ask them at the end of the presentation but not while it is in progress.

5. Only three people may enter the bakery at one time for safety reasons.

6. We may not have enough time to visit The Tower of London today.

7. The boss might get angry when he finds out I'm quitting.

8. I could have broken my front teeth when I fell off my bike but luckily I didn't.

9. Can you call an ambulance please? I think I may be having a heart attack.

10. I might have left the front door unlocked so I have to go home and check.

11. Why did you waste money on a taxi? You could have taken the free bus!

12. When I was young, children could play in the streets without being in danger.

13. You couldn't have seen me at the supermarket because I order my shopping online.

14. My dog could have been killed by the cyclist!

15. Can I have some of your water, please darling?