Original Coursework Submission Authentication

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

The structure and format of most distance learning courses presume a high level of personal and academic integrity in completing and submitting coursework. Individuals enrolled in an SPU distance learning course are expected to adhere to the following standards of academic conduct.

Academic Work: Academic work submitted by the individual (such as papers, assignments, reports, tests) shall be the student's own work or appropriately attributed in part or in whole to its correct source. Submission of commercially prepared (or group prepared) materials as if they were one's own work is unacceptable.

Aiding Honesty in Others: The individual will encourage honesty in others by refraining from providing materials or information to another person with knowledge that these materials or information will be used improperly.

Violation of these academic standards may result in the assignment of a failing grade and subsequent loss of credit for the course.

By signing below, I verify that I have read and understand the Seattle Pacific University Academic Integrity Policy and hereby declare that the coursework I am submitting is my own work or appropriately attributed in part or in whole to its correct source. If this is proven otherwise, I understand this may result in a failing grade and subsequent loss of credit for the course.
