

GATE 63

THE GATE OF DOUBT

Location: Head Center

Healthy Expression: truth, evidence, research, corroboration, facts

Unhealthy Expression: falsehood, unfounded opinion, extreme skepticism, the need to be right at all cost

Gate 63 on Line 1: lesson/gift: keeping your poise and presence amidst honest self-scrutiny; willingness to be wrong and to adjust your beliefs when presented with new evidence

Gate 63 on Line 4: lesson/gift: how to trace the footprints of your thinking so your ideas and perspectives can be understood and heard by others; remaining alert to where others are misunderstanding you

Gate 63 on Line 2: lesson/gift: learning how to hold true to your beliefs when you're in the right, and not just deferring to what those around you believe; healthy sense of confidence in what you know to be true

Gate 63 on Line 5: lesson/gift: sincerity; the willingness to really examine your beliefs and doubts in search of the truth: what isn't ringing true? why? where can I go to get more accurate info?

Gate 63 on Line 3: lesson/gift: searching out the people and circumstances that will help you meet your goals, all while maintaining your high ideals around verification of new information/beliefs

Gate 63 on Line 6: lesson/gift: the ability to live in the present and allow yourself/others to learn from their mistakes and grow; utilizing your ability to spot patterns to help you project into the future
