Celebrating the 9 Nights of Mother Divine

Meaning of Navaratri

NAVARATRI

Navaratri, also known as Dasara, is a nine night, 10-day festival celebrating the Holy Mother. During this time, three different aspects of Mother Divine are worshipped –Durga, Lakshmi, and Saraswati. Although She is one, She is worshipped in Her three forms to receive the blessings from these different aspects of Her energy. The 10th day is Vijayadasami, the festival of victory, when the Mother conquers the negative forces and symbolizes the moment of realization of the ultimate reality. Vijayadasami also is the lunar anniversary of Shirdi Sai Baba’s Mahasamadhi (day he left his body), the day he merged into Mother Divine.

Navaratri literally means nine nights; “nava” means nine, “ratri” means night. This is the time when the Mother’s energy is very accessible. To connect with and celebrate Her, a special fire puja is dedicated each day to a specific form of the Mother so that we may receive Her blessings.

The first three days of Navaratri we honor and connect with Durga who destroys our impurities and negative tendencies.

“Durga and Her eight hands are the symbols of the siddhis.

They are eight types of weapons to kill the negativity”

– Sri Kaleshwar

DURGA

The next three days of Navaratri we honor and connect with Lakshmi, who blesses us with divine wealth, both material and spiritual abundance, both our physical needs and a pure mind and heart.

“The Mother, Mahalakshmi, is sitting there in the Sri Chakra. It’s Her energy structure and is the balancing point in the Creation that She works through. Everything exists in the Sri Chakra and comes from the Sri Chakra, both good and bad; everything is there. It is the energy that creates the three gunas. Every angle, of every direction of the universe, is covered by Sri Chakra. The Goddess lives in the Akasha Rekha and grants Her children’s material desires. The Mother knows what Her children need.”

– Sri Kaleshwar

LAXMI

The final three days we honor and connect with Saraswati, who bestows blessings of true wisdom through divine knowledge. She blesses divine speech and the arts and wears white, which symbolizes the illumination of the Supreme Truth.

“She is the most incredible, brilliant soul energy.

*If we take Her form of the energy,
you can win the illusion circles.*

*She’s the only one form of Mother Divine of knowledge. To any problem, there’s a solution to that. Even if there’s a terrible problem, there’s terrible darkness,
through knowledge you can remove it.”*

– Sri Kaleshwar

SARASWATI

The tenth day is Vijayadasami, which means the day of true victory. Through the Holy Mother's blessings, there is a victory of the light over the darkness in ourselves and in the world. Jai Mai!

“Mahakali is created of all energies in one form.

Mahakali means everything is there - Brahma, Vishnu, Mahehsvara, Parvati, Lakshmi and Saraswati, all rishis, all devatas, all angels. Everything is one soul. The most creating form of Mother Divine means Mahakali. If you go through that form, that's most powerful you can hit. She washes out fear. Whoever connects to Mahakali can connect to any soul on this planet. You can command to wash out anybody's negativity; you can heal any person in the universe. Her energy is the most peak point, the top system. If you hook Her, even when you walk in the garden and breathe in and you breathe out, that energy purifies the air. Negative spirits can't come around. To be honest, there's no chance at all. That power is hidden in that vibration, that energy. She's coming as the fire, just burning the negativity.”

– Sri Kaleshwar
