18:18:15 From GF : Is one bound to the earth when calling them in for help? And is that a conscious choice of the ones that left....?
And what about ourselves...when we leave the earthplane and want to move on....are you still bound to solve the problems of the ones that come after you?

What if you do not want to return but go back to the fairies? Will a part of your multidimensionality be able to freely assist here and there.....?

18:18:27 From LS : Yes, many questions here!

18:18:32 From Admin : You can join the magickal membership call at 1.30pm UK time by enrolling here <https://courses.azizshamanism.com/p/magickal-membership-workshops> to go further into working with ancestors

18:19:01 From JH : Question: What happens if one goes about life not feeding ancestors?

18:20:15 From iPhone : How can we automate feeding ancestors offering through psionics? Is this possible? It would be a huge help.

18:20:28 From BA : can u tell more about the emotional body u just mentioned before?

18:21:11 From GLR : How about your siblings? So if your brother died would he have the same impact as a parent who has died?

18:21:19 From AS : Could DNA test help to find connection with our ancestors?

18:21:49 From iPhone : Replying to "Question: What happe..."

They will drain and take blessings that are down for you. It's the rent you pay fir being born in their lineage. They can take energy of blessings , money energy etc from you 18:22:07 From LL : How does it effect childless people?

18:22:27 From BM : What about shame, and sexual abuse, can the shame be in the ancestral line and stuck there, so I can't really get away from it?

- 18:22:27 From MP : so ancestors are astral shells in the underworld?
- 18:23:42 From FB : How can we find out in which area there is the most negative influence/blockages from ancestry?
- 18:24:01 From SP : You will probably answer this in the workshop but maybe you could give us a teaser, how and what methods do you use to separate the good and weed out the bad ancestors?
- 18:25:28 From LS : I am just now struggling with fear neurosis and ADD and bipolar in my children and in myself. There is much fear in my mother's strain. It seems to be in our DNA.
- 18:26:39 From GF : is it not possible for the emotional body to dissolve?
- 18:26:40 From iPhone : Can we create Egyptian shabti (servitor that help ancestors in their world) after they have passed away to help them where they are in their world? Let's say these shabtis could help them with food , building shelter etc?
- 18:27:56 From BM : Is Parkinson's also a possible or rather several attachments from emotional body?
- 18:28:21 From MM : Many years back, the Lwa told me that none of my ancestors were any good + aren't worth feeding! Although they had previously told me that way back in Ancient Egypt I had some good ones but then they seemed to change their mind about this. My mum's dad was a kind man but following the Lwa, + your advice, I decided to take on a new ancestry of the Javanese Masters as I have the strongest connection with them. I've been so busy feeding the Lwa + other gods that I haven't kept up the regular feeding of the Javanese Masters. Could this be part of the reason for my current (serious) health problems? As they are so highly spiritual + have less need for physical food, are they happy with a scented flower such as a rose and aromatic scent + a white candle, or what else should I feed them?
- 18:28:35 From I : I was told that I'm carrying a lot of sadness and sorrow from my past lives and ancestors. How can one clear that?
- 18:32:01 From SP : Hi, a non-topic question if there is time, regarding Candali Level 7 Zhug 1.) For the initiation and daily prayer it says to recite Om Ah Mi Dhe Wa Hri as many times as possible, what is a good amount that we should we shoot for? one mala (108x) or like 10 (1080x), whether 1 mala or 10 it would be good to do this in increments of malas? 2.) The appendix says Zhug is a dragon deity, but the daily mantra is a the Amitabha mantra, does this mean when we do Zhug initiation we will also be attuned to Amitabha Buddha as well? Thank you.
- 18:32:12 From Peter Aziz : If you'd like to join just the Working with Ancestors workshop rather than joining the Magickal Membership, you can do so here <https://courses.azizshamanism.com/p/working-with-ancestors>
- 18:33:16 From MP : does the old practice of burying people with tools and things they had in this life, to have in the next, something that has any affect for them?
- 18:35:21 From iPhone : Why ancestor money with money god jade emperor works so well in ancestor offering ? Why there is a dilation let's say if I offer £10000 they get £1000 in their world ?
- 18:37:33 From MM : So what should I feed the Javanese Masters, + is my neglect of feeding them a big part of the reason of my current health problems?

18:39:09 From PH : How often do you feed your ancestors?

18:39:37 From EC : I never met anyone from the african side of my family. They were from Mozambique, lived in tribes, no registrations, official names and practised magick. My mother lost total connection with them when she came to Portugal with my father. Growing up I used to hate them even though i never met them as my mother was very different . AS I get older I feel more and more drawn to they're lifestyle. I feel interferences in my magickal work that i can't identify the source. Could it be them? Should I start by asking for forgiveness and acceptance?

18:40:23 From DR : takes one on the ancestry of ones partner through sexual intimacy?

18:41:05 From LM : what do we do with the food after and how long do we leave the food. How do we know if they receive the gift?

18:42:08 From iPhone : Egyptians buried spell items with their pharaoh so their pharaoh wake up on the other side with all things they needed including shabtis, can we send items etc now on the other side so when we wake up in the next world those items etc are waiting for us? A lot of i who pass away wake up on the other side without much apart from the clothes they were buried in?

18:45:01 From AW : I live in a city. Difficult to put the food out in nature. Any suggestions?

18:45:11 From SP : Regarding your new psionic Dan Tian Plate if there is any time left.? 1.) How long approximately will it take the plate to build our 3 Dan Tians, are we talking in weeks, months, years? 2.) Is this plate like some of your others where we are allowed to print out copies and we can use it to put our family members and friends on. 3.) And if so, can we just put them down or should we tell them or ask their permission beforehand? 4.) What sort of results can we expect in the long run, after it builds our Dan Tian will the overflow of energy will also start clearing our channels and much greater Tenaga Dalam development?

18:51:14 From iPhone : If your ancestors are Australian let's say and we use ghede to liberate your ancestors, would this be a problem if they didn't believe in that spiritual tradition of the orishas?

18:54:12 From MM : Does the 3 dantien plate also help to clear links with people that are draining you, as well as the ghosts + worms?

18:54:57 From BA : pls the link...

18:55:02 From SP : With a a serious bear problem up here, even crossroads or any nature it would be unwise to leave out any food, just to clarify I can toss in the wind then pick them up and throwing it in a garbage if I apologize for not being able to put it in nature it won't nullify anything?
