

Words and Definitions for Adjectives Set One

Listen to the accompanying MP3 and read these definitions and sentences.

This will train your brain to master these words.

Ambiguous = having more than one meaning.

You have to try hard to understand the novel. Many parts of it are ambiguous, so it can be confusing.

Hideous = very ugly or bad

Look at that hideous new building. What architect designed that?

Aesthetic = relating to beauty and appearance.

People are attracted to the aesthetic appeal of the car rather than its performance.

Myriad = very many.

You'll enjoy the myriad museums, monuments and attractions in the city.

Concise = giving a lot of information in few words.

Even though John's presentations are a bit boring, they are concise.