Happy Independence Day

Welcome back,

Happy 4th of July',
Summer camping season is officially here. That also means extreme heat is here for many RVers across the country.

This month's featured article and video will offer some tips and tricks to help deal with the heat when you head out on your next RV adventure. I am also including an article that discusses how lots of problems concerning RVs can be fixed through

RV education.

Enjoy the newsletter, and as always if you have family or friends who like RVs and the RV lifestyle please share with them too.

RV 101 - Fixing RV Problems through RV Education

The screenshot shows the homepage of the RV Education 101 website. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for Courses, Videos, E-books, Affiliate, RV Dealer, More, and Login. The main content area features a large image of an RV interior with a sunset view through the windshield. Overlaid on this image is the text: 'RV Education 101 * DISCOVER-LEARN-ENJOY'. Below this, a paragraph describes the course: 'Master your RV with expert RV 101® step by step online video & written training. We provide you with a solid RV foundation. Learning RVs the easy way. Reputable, easy to understand, thorough, self-paced & affordable. Lifetime access. RV orientation walk throughs on how to use and maintain a motorhome, travel trailer and 5th wheel with downloadable segments. Not a subscription based course. We never inundate you with emails. Founded in 1999 the leader in RV Education.'
