Date – 8/5/2021

Time – 7.30 PM

BSR Sir started the session by asking people to celebrate every moment of life. Perfect practice makes a man perfect, we have practiced incorrectly. People have practiced to get upset on smallest issues. They have mastered the art of getting upset at the drop of a hat. People have given others the right to impact them, people get upset over criticism, if someone makes fun of them, if someone does not agree to them, people get upset and angry at absolutely anything, energy drops immediately and the Universal waiter who is standing next to you, considers it as your order and delivers it to you.

BSR Sir said that people take 5 breaks in a day for their stomach needs, but hardly do they devote some time for nourishment of their mind. Your mind has the power to change your entire life. BSR Sir shared a fictional story about Sachin Tendulkar and Vinod Kambli. BSR Sir explained the terms KFPH (Kya Fark Padta Hai) and BFPH (Bahut Fark Padta Hai). It is attitude of people that they do not understand the importance of consistent efforts. They have a KFPH attitude, whereas there are some people who do not miss even a single day of this free session, they are even making notes and they are of an attitude that BFPH.

BSR Sir shared a real life experience of a session attended by BSR Sir and a story that was shared in that session. The story was an example of the great Sachin Tendulkar's commitment towards the game of cricket. It is very important to condition your mind everyday along with sincere efforts on your skill. BSR Sir also shared the example of badminton player Saina Nehwal, a world class swimmer Mark Spitz. Law of Attraction works for everyone but along with it you need to put in your consistent sincere efforts in mastering the skill which will help you earn millions. BSR Sir shared the example of a corporate that in a corporate culture a person who is consistent performer receives all the accolades and promotions by the CEO because the CEO of the company keeps a watch on each employee and rewards the best performer, similarly the Universe is keeping a check on each and everyone. Universe promotes and rewards the one who is consistent with the efforts. You have to have the attitude and sincerity of a billionaire to become a billionaire. The dedication, focus, skill, communication, thoughts, ideas, selling skills etc, everything has to be like a billionaire. BSR Sir shared some feedback posted by the viewers.

BSR Sir shared the story of a crow, who was teaching its off spring to fly. One day in the crow's absence its off spring tried to fly alone and they unknowingly started flying above the sea and when they got tired and could not fly further, they fell into the sea and died by drowning. Out of anger the crow started filling water in their beak to dry up the sea, other birds saw this and asked him what are you doing, you won't be able to dry up the sea, the crow said do not advise me, if you want to do something come and join me. Slowly, all the birds, Garuda and Lord Vishnu joined the crow to dry up the sea. Looking at Lord Vishnu, the sea who was terrified returned the off spring lives to the crow. Moral of the story: If you can't support someone stop blabbering and telling them they can't do it. Take the best, throw the rest. BSR Sir shared some more feedback and testimonials.

BSR Sir revised the topics that we have learned in past few days.

Why does Law Of Attraction work?

BSR Sir shared an example of experiment conducted over 30 cows, which were divided in three categories. 10 cows were treated normally, the other 10 were treated badly and kept in bad and unhygienic environment and the third group of 10 cows was treated with love and utmost care. There was a difference in milk productivity. The normal category produced 10 litres per cow, the second category produced 8 litres milk due to the bad treatment, the third category produced 12 litres, which is 2 litres more than expected due to love and care.

BSR Sir shared numerous such experiments conducted on water, trees etc. BSR Sir also explained the link between Quantum Physics and the Law of Attraction. Also shared about the String Theory.

BSR Sir also shared that Energy Always Vibrates, Like attracts Like. BSR Sir also shared an anecdote from “The Bhagwad Geeta”. Energy = God = You

Every single day you should always take your energy higher.
