MY LIFE EXPERIENCE

I lived a life of such torment and chaos and when I got saved I struggled in almost every area of my life. As a new Christian I didn't understand the importance of really spending quality time with God for the simple purpose of getting to know him and not just to obtain things that I wanted.

I was so deceived about who I was as a daughter of God. I felt like I was on a rollercoaster ride that wasn't fun at all.

I loved the lord, don't get me wrong, but I loved the idea of God not the character and person of God. There is a difference. God began to teach me about who he really is and who I am in Him and during this time I began to actually develop a true love for the Lord and a friendship as well.

This wasn't an overnight process but day in and day out of communing with him and reading His word and understanding it, all of a sudden the words began to jump off the page at me and revelation hit my spirit.

I started to see that the rollercoaster ride came to an end and instead I was walking hand in hand with the Lord on a beautiful journey.

Even on the rough parts of the road I knew he was right there with me and I had a joy and peace that was beyond anyone's understanding.

I realized I wasn't going through life and trails all by myself with nothing to fight the enemy with, but I saw I had lots of weapons at my disposal and I was predestined to win each and every time.

Weapons of worship are not just for people on a worship team or people who have a singing gift. They are for every single believer and are mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.

Get ready to feel the burdens you've been carrying start to fall off as you read this book.

Spiritual Battlefield

We are living in a spiritual battle every day wouldn't you agree? The enemy is highly organized and strategic about executing his plans for us which is to kill us either physically, emotionally, or spiritually. And if he can't do that he will try to steal our joy, peace, sanity or health; and if that wasn't enough he also will try to destroy our dreams, family, destiny and purpose.

So what can we as believers do to come against such an organized and seemingly effective demonic force?

What are some weapons we can have on us and at our disposal at any given moment that will make the enemy run for cover?

In this e-course we will unpack 9 powerful and proven weapons of warfare that are mighty through our God to pull down every stronghold and to live a life of absolute victory.

Grab your writing pad and a pen to take notes as we dive into this and get equipped to move forward with boldness and success!!
