LISTENING TEST

In the Listening test, you will be asked to demonstrate how well you understand spoken English. The entire Listening test will last approximately 45 minutes. There are four parts, and directions are given for each part. You must mark your answers on the separate answer sheet. Do not write your answers in your test book.

PART 1

Directions: For each question in this part, you will hear four statements about a picture in your test book. When you hear the statements, you must select the one statement that best describes what you see in the picture. Then find the number of the question on your answer sheet and mark your answer. The statements will not be printed in your test book and will be spoken only one time.

Statement (C), "They're sitting at a table," is the best description of the picture, so you should select answer (C) and mark it on your answer sheet.

Aisa Ito [10:08 A.M.] I'm so glad I found this forum for users of Canomatik products! Has anyone tried the S20 can opener? The electric can opener I've had for years finally broke.

Tanveer Kumar [10:10 A.M.] I bought one several years ago, but I don't think it was worth the money I spent.

Ingrid Vogel [11:15 A.M.] I like mine. I used to struggle opening cans. This one makes it easier to open cans of all sizes.

Laurie Jacobs [2:12 P.M.] The commercial version is expensive, but there is also a consumer version that costs less.

John Burwood [2:14 P.M.] I ordered mine online, and it was defective. I contacted the company's customer service department, and they sent me a new one that works just fine.

Laurie Jacobs [2:16 P.M.] I used to be a cook at a restaurant years ago, and we had a commercial-grade Canomatik can opener back then. I've been using the consumer version at home for nearly a decade. It opens cans safely and easily.

Aisa Ito [5:15 P.M.] Thanks, everyone. I'll give it a try.

153. Who responded to Ms. Ito's question?
- (A) Customer service agents
  - (B) Advertising sales representatives

Home Style Clothing Line Debuts

MANILA (September 18)—Inspired by the handmade crafts of the Philippines, local designer Maritess Bautista has introduced Home Style, a clothing brand that features fabrics woven by area artisans using traditional practices.

Bautista first learned basic weaving techniques from her mother and aunts in her youth and built on that knowledge as she studied at the Manila School of Fashion Design. — [1] —. She then spent the next ten years working as a junior designer for Trendy Today. — [2] —. Finally, she returned to her hometown of San Jacinto to found Home Style.

Home Style's debut collection includes clothing and hair accessories that utilize the weaving techniques and designs that the area is known for. — [3] —. Ms. Bautista purchases all the textiles she uses from local craftspeople.

Currently, Home Style merchandise is available only in select San Jacinto-area stores. — [4] —.

"I want to keep production local," said Ms. Bautista. "That's good for the artisans, and it's authentic. But I don't want the products to remain local. I want to bring our designs to the whole country—maybe even the world."

162. Who introduced Ms. Bautista to weaving?

- (A) Her family
- (B) Her teachers
- (C) Senior designers
- (D) Local craftspeople

163. What is indicated about Ms. Bautista?

- (A) She was born in Manila.
- (B) She buys materials from nearby sources.
- (C) She has started many businesses.
- (D) She regularly travels around the world.

164. In which of the positions marked [1], [2], [3], and [4] does the following sentence best belong?

"However, Ms. Bautista has broader goals."

- (A) [1]
- (B) [2]
- (C) [3]
- (D) [4]

About	Events	Photos	The Foundation
--------------	---------------	---------------	-----------------------

Welcome to the Clarrell Estate—Ballarton's premier centre for the arts! The exquisite grounds of the estate are situated on 60 hectares of hilly terrain featuring lush English gardens and an impressive manor house that was designed by noted architect Owen Barton. Ten years ago, the Clarrell Foundation decided to transform the estate into an arts centre. Initially, the foundation opened the manor house to the public, highlighting the Clarrell family art collection. In the last three years, a large, multiuse complex was built near the property entrance, complete with art studios and a theatre.

The Clarrell Estate's museum and gardens are open to the public free of charge. In addition, the theatre hosts public lectures as well as musical performances, and the studios showcase individual artists' curated works. For a complete schedule, a list of current artists, and information on admission fees for the theatre and studios, please visit the Events page.

Join the Clarrell Foundation to enjoy members-only special events and discounts on performances. Members also have the opportunity to reserve the gardens for private events. To become a member, contact Alicia Ji at aji@clarrellestate.com.au.

Questions 176-180 refer to the following e-mails.

To:	Bridget Morandi
From:	Marybeth Wright
Date:	March 23
Subject:	Refund request

Hi Bridget,

I was wondering if you have heard from Sujata Reddy. She was enrolled in the painting class I teach on Tuesday and Thursday. She was only able to attend for the first week because another commitment came up. She said she asked someone in the Tucson Adult School office if she could drop the class, and she has requested a refund of the course tuition.

She said she hasn't received her refund yet. Did she contact you?

Best,

Marybeth Wright

To:	Marybeth Wright
From:	Bridget Morandi
Date:	March 24
Subject:	Re: Refund request

Hi Marybeth,

The name is familiar, but Ms. Reddy hasn't been in touch with me personally. Actually, I'm not the person she should contact. I just handle the scheduling as well as ordering supplies for the art classes.

I don't know who Ms. Reddy spoke to. According to our refund policy on the Tucson Adult School Web site, refunds are only granted if they are requested before the class begins or if there is a documented health reason for dropping the class. In the case of a health reason, the amount of the refund will be based on the number of classes completed.

Maybe Ms. Reddy can attend your second semester class instead of this semester's. That would be my suggestion.

Bridget Morandi

176. Who most likely is Ms. Wright?

- (A) A scheduling coordinator
- (B) A vice principal
- (C) An art gallery owner
- (D) An adult education teacher

177. Why did Ms. Wright send an e-mail to Ms. Morandi?

- (A) To decline an invitation
- (B) To propose a solution
- (C) To ask for information
- (D) To reschedule a meeting

178. In the first e-mail, the word "drop" in paragraph 1, line 4, is closest in meaning to

- (A) slip
- (B) quit
- (C) lower
- (D) slow

179. Why most likely has Ms. Reddy not yet received a tuition refund?

- (A) The registration office has been closed.
- (B) The refund check is still in the mail.
- (C) She failed to submit her request in writing.
- (D) She already attended part of the class.

180. What does Ms. Morandi suggest that Ms. Reddy may be able to do?

- (A) Use her previously paid tuition to take a future class
- (B) Find the same class at another adult school
- (C) Attend half the class and still receive credit
- (D) Contact the teacher to arrange for private tutoring

Questions 181-185 refer to the following article and letter to the editor.

New Bakery Coming to Town

OREVALE CITY (October 14)—A Cresson's Bakery is opening soon at the corner of Canton Avenue and Ridley Street. The location will be the national chain's first within the city limits. Like all Cresson's Bakery stores, it will operate seven days a week.

The only similar business in the vicinity is the Donut Station on the Kupperman University campus. Cresson's Bakery will offer breakfast sandwiches and fruit juices in addition to its signature coffee and baked goods. The company is following its revised business model to open compact facilities rather than sit-down eateries. This means the Orevale City location will offer takeout and drive-through service only.

The bakery will occupy Canton Avenue's smallest vacant lot. Approval for the project followed a public hearing where area residents voiced mixed opinions.

Gina Holton, who lives on Paxton Road, said she liked the idea of having a new bakery in her neighborhood but worries about traffic congestion on Ridley Street. As evidence, she presented pictures of heavy vehicle traffic there. Wofford Drive resident Steven Lu said he would enjoy having a convenient place to grab a quick snack.

Cresson's Bakery is slated to welcome its first customers in early March.

Dear Editor,

As a lifelong resident of Orevale City, I appreciate your coverage of Cresson's Bakery. Unfortunately, the October 14 article contained some inaccurate information. The photos that I shared during the public hearing captured images of traffic congestion in front of my house. Also, as a member of the city's Historic Preservation Committee, I was primarily concerned about the bakery's architecture. The initial building design for Cresson's Bakery was contemporary. I am pleased to report that the chain has agreed to modify the exterior so that it blends in better with the older structures surrounding it.

Sincerely,
Gina Holton

181. What is indicated about Orevale City?

- (A) It has little open land for development.
- (B) It has two warehouse districts.
- (C) It is home to a university.
- (D) It has a growing population.

182. What is different about new Cresson's Bakery locations?

- (A) They replicate historic architectural features.
- (B) They offer a wider variety of baked goods.
- (C) They do not offer seating for customers.
- (D) They are located outside of city centers.

183. What is indicated about Mr. Lu?

- (A) He is Ms. Holton's next-door neighbor.
- (B) He plans to patronize Cresson's Bakery.
- (C) He recently moved to Orevale City.
- (D) He is a member of a historic preservation group.

184. Where did Ms. Holton take photos of vehicle traffic?

- (A) On Canton Avenue
- (B) On Wofford Drive
- (C) On Ridley Street
- (D) On Paxton Road

185. What does the letter suggest about Ms. Holton?

- (A) She is happy that a building design was changed.
- (B) She is planning to start her own bakery business.
- (C) She did not attend a public hearing.
- (D) She wants to submit an article to the newspaper.

Questions 186-190 refer to the following letter, article, and notice.

Brandy Mortimer
Raxconnect, Inc.
620 Weir Road
Glasgow G91 9HX

11 March

Alyssa Susilo
29 Lefroy Street
Glasgow G3 7BQ

Dear Ms. Susilo,

As you may know, Raxconnect has been expanding its services in the Glasgow area over the past year. Our new fibre-optic cable lines offer faster and more reliable service and eliminate the need for aboveground wiring. In order for the system to work, we need to install Internet connection devices throughout the city. Phase 1 of our construction work involved City Centre. Phase 2 involved West End. Although Phase 2 took longer than expected, we were able to expedite Phase 3 and get back on schedule. Phase 4 is now ready to begin in your area.

Raxconnect would like to place a small Internet connection hub on your property at 29 Lefroy Street. Because of its central location on the street, your front yard would make an optimal connection point. Please call us at 0141 496 0001 by 10 April to let us know whether we may proceed. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Brandy Mortimer

Brandy Mortimer, Utilities Adviser

Raxconnect Expands Service

GLASGOW (14 March)—After unexpected delays in West End, Raxconnect has finally completed the latest phase of its project to install fibre-optic cable throughout the city. Residents and businesses in Southside are now enjoying faster Internet service.

For the next phase of the project, in Finnieston, Raxconnect has identified key locations for connection hubs and is currently reaching out to residents and homeowners so that work can begin as soon as possible.

The moves follow an announcement made earlier this year that Raxconnect had invested £350 million to expand its network. Local officials hope that the project brings new business and spending to their neighbourhoods.

Notice of Temporary Road Closure

Please be aware that construction at 29 Lefroy Street will result in the closure of the entire street. The closure will last from Monday, 31 May, until Tuesday, 8 June. During that period, automobile access will be limited to residents who live on Lefroy Street.

186. What is the main purpose of the letter?
- (A) To apologize for poor Internet service
  - (B) To seek permission from a property owner
  - (C) To provide an explanation for a delay
  - (D) To persuade a customer to switch Internet providers
187. What is suggested about Finnieston in the article?
- (A) It recently experienced power outages.
  - (B) It houses Raxconnect's headquarters.
  - (C) It will require only one connection hub.
  - (D) It will soon have upgraded Internet service.
188. Which phase of Raxconnect's project took place in Southside?
- (A) Phase 1
  - (B) Phase 2
  - (C) Phase 3
  - (D) Phase 4
189. What can be concluded about Ms. Susilo?
- (A) She agreed to Ms. Mortimer's request.
  - (B) She is employed by Raxconnect.
  - (C) She plans to move to a different Glasgow neighborhood.
  - (D) She produces video content for the Internet.
190. What does the notice suggest about people who live on Lefroy Street?
- (A) They will have access to a shuttle service to their homes.
  - (B) They will receive free Internet service for one week.
  - (C) They will be asked to fill out a form when Raxconnect's work is done.
  - (D) They will be able to use the street during construction.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Kevin Oessenich, kevin.o@albertandannies.com.au

GOOLWA (2 November)—Yesterday, Albert and Annie's, a leading maker of gourmet frozen desserts, unveiled several new treats: Triple Time Chocolate ice cream, a waltz of light and dark chocolate with a chocolate crumb swirl; Toffee Spree, a vanilla and toffee ice cream with sweet biscuit infusions; and a raspberry sorbet, featuring bits of real fruit. The new products are expected to be in Australian stores by mid-November.

The company was founded 25 years ago by Albert and Annie Grundon, president and CEO, respectively. Earlier this year, they announced the opening of a South African division. South African retailers will get access to a number of Albert and Annie's products in mid-December.

Dear Mr. Oessenich,

I am a reporter for Western Cape Eats, a news site for food lovers in the Cape Town area. I would very much like to interview one or both of your company's founders about your products and to find out which products will be available here in South Africa. My readers are eager to know what to expect. Readers would also like to know if Albert and Annie's will be promoting itself at this year's Wooden Sailboat Festival. Most local businesses rent booths there as it is a major event.

The interview can be conducted by phone or video chat. I look forward to your reply.

Jim Sato, 31 December

Your article informing me about Albert and Annie's, an ice-cream company that just came to South Africa, gave me one more reason to attend the annual Wooden Sailboat Festival. I got to sample some sensational ice creams at Albert and Annie's booth. The booth offered three amazing flavours: Coffee Truffle, Fudge Mint, and Chocolate Pretzel Delight. In your article, Mr. Oessenich stated that these would be the first flavours to be rolled out to grocery outlets in South Africa and that more will become available over time. I can't wait!

Getting Grants

Posted on August 18 by Ben Fineman

Grant writing is the art of completing applications for financial aid offered by government agencies, schools, corporations, or other entities. There is huge competition for grants and no room for mediocrity in grant writing. To improve your grant-writing skills, consider taking an online course taught by Kristina Gilliam of Meadow Park University. Her Writing Great Grants course is divided into four 90-minute interactive sessions. It is designed for people with some basic knowledge of grant writing. These Monday evening classes run from November 15 to December 6. For details and registration, visit www.kristinagilliam.ca/course. Use the promo code NPBURST at checkout to get 15-percent off the $350 tuition. This code expires on September 30. On October 1, only full-price registration will be available until the final registration day, November 1.

Name: Natalie Ballard

Location: Winnipeg

Comment: Relatively short compared to other writing courses I've taken, Writing Great Grants provided a decent overview. I was impressed to learn that the instructor helped companies get millions of dollars in grants during her career, and I'm glad to now have her as a resource if I ever get hired as a grant writer. Fortunately, I used Ben's Nonprofit Burst's promo code when I registered. Otherwise, I'd have considered the tuition too high. The Web site gave me the impression that Ms. Gilliam would include more specifics about the actual writing process than she did.

Name: Paul Voigt

Location: Toronto

Comment: This was a great course overall. The instructor shared a wealth of valuable insights, including her experiences as the founder of Orden International. I never realized that grant-writing firms even existed! I might start one of my own if I ever leave my current grant-writing job. The course focused mainly on researching grant opportunities and analyzing samples of successful grant applications. When several of us asked for specific writing tips during the final session, Ms. Gilliam simply referred us to other resources. The course description on her Web site was a bit misleading in that regard.
