

Conversation (phrasal verbs)

On the road – Exercise

Fill in the gaps in this conversation.

A: Are you going to ... pick up ... your son at school?

B: Yes, I am.

A: Could you me at the train station on your way please?

B: Sure. If we the station now, you'll be there at 3:00.

A: Oh, my train is at 3:10. We'd better

B: I hope we won't get in traffic.

... On the road ...

A: Do you think you could a bit?

B: No, I should actually

A: Why is that?

B: They're people who break the speed limit.

A: I see.

B: And, I'm petrol.

A: Do you mean you have to at the next station?

B: I'm afraid so, but don't worry. I'll get you to the station in time for your train.