

Overview - Module 1

Here are all the fluency phrases in Module 1.

Collocations

be in touch with someone be out of touch with someone / situation lose touch with someone stay in touch / keep in touch to have time for have a good memory
play in a band
play cards
play chess
play pool / darts, etc watch a film / movie / TV take part in (an activity) do something for fun
be keen on

Phrasal Verbs

bump into look forward to hang out (with) chill out
get together
come round get up to catch up with kick (a football) around / kick around a football take in a play / exhibition set up a club / set a club up be into: be interested in something take up a hobby / take a hobby up

Overview - Module 1

Fluency Phrases

it's been a long time since / it's been ages since: when you haven't seen someone for a long time be up to (lately / recently)

"How lovely to see you! What have you been up to recently?"

(every) once in a while = sometimes / occasionally in the meantime = what's happening while you expect something else to happen for the time being = for now (a temporary, limited time) in the next few weeks / months = when something will happen in a few weeks / months let me know how it goes = tell me what happens