

SEDA

BOOK ADVANCED

ANSWER KEY

SEDA
College
Online

Chapter 1

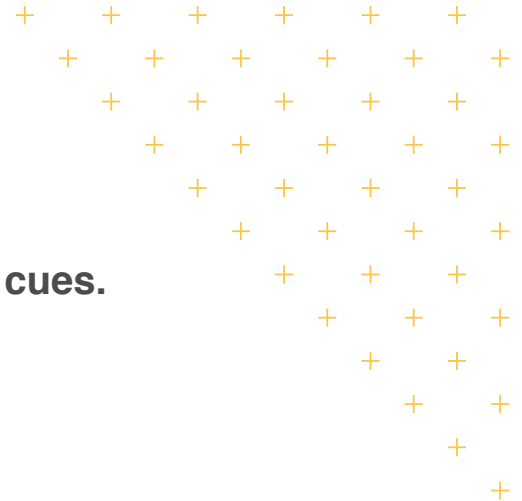

Complete the sentences with the correct future tense/tenses and the verb given.

1. The train leaves at 10.00 am tomorrow morning. (leave)
2. We are going away next weekend, we've booked two nights in a hotel. (go)
3. When I finish this course, I am going to travel around Europe. (travel)
4. By the end of this month, they will have moved into their new apartment in London.
5. My computer is broken! Don't worry I will help you. (help)
6. If the movie starts at 8.00 pm, we will be watching it until 9.00 pm at least. (watch)
7. Sarah has a meeting with her boss tomorrow morning. (have)
8. The meeting starts at 2.00 pm this afternoon. (start)
9. It's been snowing all morning, but hopefully will have stopped by this afternoon. (stop)
10. He is going to look for a new job next year. (look for)

Chapter 2

Make Zero Conditional sentences, using the cues.

Jane / eat / too much chocolate / she / get / sick
If Jane eats too much chocolate, she gets sick

You / not / eat / you / die
If you don't eat you die.

You / heat / ice / it / melts
If you heat ice it melts

Make 1st Conditional sentences, put the verbs in brackets in correct form.

If you don't study (not study), you will fail (fail) the test.
I will lend (lend) you my umbrella if you need (need) it.
If I am (be) late, I will call (call) you.

Write 2nd Conditional sentences, put the verbs in brackets in correct form.

If you left (leave) your job, you would travel (travel) around the world.
If you were (be) nicer to him, he would lend (lend) you the money.
It would be (be) nice if the rain stopped (stop)!

Write 3rd Conditional sentences, put the verbs in brackets in correct order.

He crashed his car, because he fell asleep while driving.

If he had fallen (fall) asleep while driving, he would have crashed (crash) his car.

I lost my job because I was late for work.

I would have lost (lose) my job if I were (be) late for work.

We couldn't go to the concert, because we didn't have enough money.

If we had had (have) enough money, we would have gone (go) to the concert.

Put the verb in brackets in correct form.

If I were (be) you, I wouldn't risk it.

If they had waited another month, they probably would have gotten (get) a better price for their house.

It's quite simple really. When it's cold, water freezes (freeze).

If he decides to accept that job, he will regret (regret) it for the rest of his life.

If he hadn't been driving so fast, he wouldn't have hit (hit) the motorcyclist.

If he had been (be) more careful, he would have spotted the mistake.

If she goes on passing her exams, she will be (be) qualified to practise as a lawyer.

If I pay you twice as much, will you be able (able) to finish it by Tuesday?

If only I'd invested in that company, I would be (be) a millionaire by now.

Chapter 3

Change the following sentences to structures with wish and if only:

1.- My sister's son isn't very clever.

She wishes her son was very clever.

2.- I overslept this morning and was late for work.

If only I had gone to bed earlier.

3.- She's desperately shy.

She wishes she wasn't shy.

4.- I've been given the sack.

If only I had been more responsible.

5.- You're always complaining about everything.

I wish I didn't complain about everything.

7.- He won't apologise for breaking it.

I wish he would apologise for breaking it.

8.- She drank too much at the party.

If only she hadn't drunk too much.

9.- I want to give up smoking.

If only I could change this habit.

10.- He couldn't complete it on time.

He wished he had completed it on time.

11.- She had her hair cut really short.

Now she wishes she had chosen a longer hair style.

12.- My friends never pay attention when I speak.

I wish they would pay attention when I speak.

13.- I did what they told me to.

I wish I hadn't done it.

14.- I wasn't encouraged to be a writer.

If only I had been encouraged to be a writer.

Chapter 4

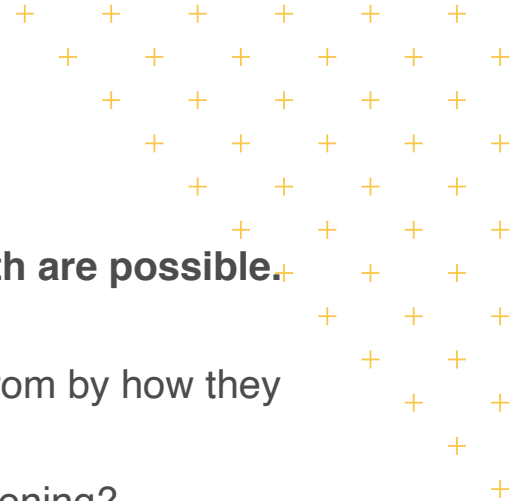

Use that, who, which or whose to complete the sentences.
Write commas where necessary.

1. Miss Anderson, whose reputation is so good, comes to help us.
2. What have you done with the pen which/that I left on the table?
3. I delivered the parcel to Charles, who gave it to Ann.
4. His wife, who is an architect, designed their new house.
5. Can you hear the noise which comes from the cellar?
6. Everybody who saw the attack should contact the police.
7. The town whose towers you can see is York.
8. Is he the new teacher who/that you told me about?
9. His last film, which is the best film I've ever seen, hasn't had a big audience.
10. My neighbour who worked as a journalist is retired now.

Chapter 11

Circle the correct pronoun. Sometimes both are possible.

1. One/ You can often tell where people are from by how they dress.
2. Can you drive you/yourself to class this evening?
3. Could the person who left their/her wallet in the classroom, please come to my office.
4. When a person starts learning a language it can take them/us a while before they are fluent.
5. When they broke up they said a lot of horrible things and really hurt each other/ themselves.

SEDA
College
Online