

1 Circle the correct relative pronouns.

- My sister is the person in my family whose / (who) / which I get on best with.
- The town of Reading, that / which / where I was born, is famous for its music festival.
- One of my favourite actresses is Nicole Kidman, who / that / which comes from Australia.
- Doctors say it's best to eat food where / who / that doesn't contain too much fat.
- The man whose / who / that car I crashed into lives in my street!
- The girl which / who / where you were dancing with at the party is Josh's ex-girlfriend.
- Lacrosse, which / where / what was invented by the Native Americans, is a popular sport in Canada.

2 Complete the descriptions with a relative pronoun. Then match the descriptions with the places and people a–f.

- She's the writer who created Harry Potter.
- It's the house in London the Prime Minister lives.
- He's the British scientist invented the World Wide Web.
- He's the sixteenth century artist most famous work is the 'Mona Lisa'.
- It's the name of the village a famous British cheese is made.
- It's a sport is played in a court with four walls.

- | | |
|----------------------------|---------------------------|
| a JK Rowling 1 | d Squash |
| b Tim Berner's-Lee | e Cheddar |
| c Leonardo da Vinci | f 10 Downing Street |

3 Complete the second sentence so it has a similar meaning to the first.

- It isn't true at all that English people are unfriendly.
People think that English people are unfriendly, which isn't true at all
- Everyone leaves this town because there's nothing to do.
There's nothing to do in this town, which
- The trains are delayed because it's been snowing all day.
It's been snowing all day, which means
- I love watching basketball because it's such a fast game.
Basketball is a such a fast game, which
- Hannah got a place at university so her parents were happy.
Hannah got a place at university, which made
- I'm really annoyed about failing my driving test again.
I've failed my driving test again, which is

4 Write commas where necessary.

- The exam wasn't difficult ,... which surprised me.
- Kate's sister who seemed a bit shallow turned out to be really nice.
- The end of the film when you find out who her father is is the best bit.
- We had lunch in the pizzeria where Lisa's brother works.
- My uncle who's practically a millionaire didn't do very well at school.
- Serena Williams whose father is her trainer has won two Olympic gold medals