foreach Challenge

Goal

Create a Console app that has a `List<string>` populated with a set of names. Loop through the names using the `foreach`. For every name, print it to the console.

Bonus

Instead of strings, make a class and create a set of instances of that class instead. The class should store first and last names. Use those properties when printing out the message on the console.

"Practice makes the master."
— Patrick Rothfuss