

How to Orchestrate Your Business

Exposition summary

We've reached the end of the Exposition. Great job! It's been an exciting journey to explore such inspiring teams as the haka, hip hop, the jazz band, string quartet and symphony orchestra, hasn't it?

Before we move on, take a minute and reflect: how can I apply what I have learnt so far? Which of the teams we discussed is closest to my heart and offers a framework that suits my vision or the vision of the organisation I work with? Which team structure offers the best solution for my current work environment?

It's time for the Development.
