SPIRITUAL PRINCIPLES OF SELF LOVE

Love is all there is.

Love is what you are.

Love is the only energy that has the capacity to create anything.

Love is constantly on the move as the only creative force of all.

Love is the energetic force that nurtures your expansion as a Soul

Love is what seeks to extend itself through you so that it can create.

Love needs to Love, in order to expand and extend.

The energetic frequency of Self Love is of a very high frequency found in the upper layers of the vibrational mass of Love.

Alignment with the frequency of Self Love will ignite a greater expansion of the Soul and its ability for Love to extend through it.

Self Love is the acknowledgement that Love is always the answer to all ills and must be achieved in order to access from the highest frequencies of the energetic force of Love.

The presence or absence of Self Love is reflected in all of your life experiences.

Everything you experience is either a Call for Love or an answer to the Call. (Concept from a Course in Miracles.)
