

Grammar

'I am doing' or 'I am going to do' – Exercises

Choose between 'be doing' and 'be going to do' to complete each sentence.

Examples:

She (start) a new job next week. ... She's starting a new job next week. ...

- Has she planned what to wear?
- Yes, she (wear) her blue dress. ... She's going to wear her blue dress. ...

1. He (arrive) at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

2. I'm too tired. I (not study) tonight. I'm too tired.....

3. They (get) married on the 15th of May.

4. - Are you free tomorrow morning?
- No, I (play) tennis with Lisa.

5. - Have you booked your holidays?
- Yes, we (go) to Spain in June.

6. - What time is your appointment with John?
- I (see) him at 3:30 this afternoon.

7. - Have they got any plans for the summer?
- Yes, they (redecorate) their house.

8. They (go) to a concert tomorrow evening.

9. - Have you decided how to pay?
- Yes, I (use) my credit card.

10. What time the taxi (pick you up)?

11. Tomorrow, my flight (leave) at 1:45 p.m.

12. This programme (not end) until November.

13. The conference (start) next Monday.

14. When your classes (start) next term?

15. What time the show (begin) tonight?