Shambho, the One who brings Prosperity and joy

Shankara, the Destroyer

Hara, of evils, the great Lord

Mahadeva, (Great God)

Parvathi, the highest Lord of the Universe

Hara Hara Mahadev

“Har Har Mahadev” implies - “O Great Lord (Shiva my true inner self), take away my sorrows, grief and all sorts of pain (by liberating my soul from the cycles of illusion).

A sixteen-word Vaishnava mantra also known as the “Maha Mantra” (Great Mantra)

According to Gaudiya Vaishnava theology, one’s original consciousness and goal of life is pure love of God (Krishna).

This Mantra is composed of three Sanskrit names of the Supreme Being; “Hare”, “Krishna”, and “Rama”

Meaning

English Translation:

Victory to Sita and Ram, Victory to Hanuman
Victory over the darkness of suffering...

Jai/Jaya: Victory to!

Sitā: An avatar, or incarnation, of Lakshmi, Goddess of abundance. Lakshmi and Vishnu incarnate on earth as Sita and Rama. Sita is known for her devotion and purity, and is the central female character of the Ramayana.

Rām/Rāma: An avatar, or incarnation, of Vishnu, the lord of the universe. Rama's story is told in the Ramayana, his wife is Sita, and he is known for his compassion and courage.

Hanumān: Son of the wind, embodiment of devotion, ardent devotee of Ram and Sita. Hanuman is a monkey-god who helps Rama defeat Ravana and reconnect with Sita, as told in the Ramayana.
