

3 Questions to Ask When Developing Your Logline

- Who is the main character and what does he or she want?
- 2. Who or what is standing in the way?
- 3. What makes your story unique?

Answer questions below

Exercise: Time to Write Your Logline

- 1. Find the list of action and descriptive words in your workbook.
- 2. Answer the 3 questions in your workbook.
- 3. Use the answers to begin formulating your logline.
- 4. After you've written it, go back in a few days and delete all words that either aren't necessary or don't contribute to the story.
- 5. When you feel like you have a good working copy, read it to friends, family, and other authors. Get feedback. Positive feedback will tell you you're on the right track.
