

REFASHIONING 101

Discover how to create your own affordable, sustainable style!
(because being eco-friendly shouldn't cost the Earth)

The techniques and tutorials in this course can easily be tweaked and used for tons of other projects!

As every combination of materials will have a unique result there's no mistakes in refashioning and upcycling, if a refashion doesn't turn out as intended simply transform it into something else!

You're only limited by your own imagination.

What the heck is a "Refashionista"?

[ree-fash-uh-nee-stuh]

An awesome eco-fashion upcycling warrior who firmly believes that fabulous, affordable, unique style can be achieved by anyone on any budget without supporting the growing phenomenon of unethically produced products and fashion.
