

churros and chocolate

WRITTEN BY JANICE JOHNSON

Churros are a Fried-dough pastry. 1

They are popular in Spain and other countries. 2

The dough goes into a "churrera" to squeeze the dough into the Fryer.

Churro dough is made of Flour, water and salt. 3

They are Fried in a big vat of oil. 4

In Andaluca they are Fried in a large spiral and then cut into pieces. 5

Churros are crunchy on the outside and soft in the middle.

Churros are usually not sweet. 6

You can sprinkle your churros with sugar. 7

The thick chocolate coats the churro and makes it sweet. 8

Many people dunk their churros in a thick, dark drinking chocolate.

You can buy churros in a café. 9

You can also buy churros from a Food truck called a "churreria". 10

Follow the link to learn more

Churros con chocolate are a classic Spanish sweet snack. They are popular in Spain and other countries.

You can eat churros for breakfast, and for a snack.

