

Identifying Warblers in the Field

Add your own notes and colors to these sketches to help identify warblers you observe in the field

Notice your warbler's color pattern, behavior, habitat and song

Rump patch

Lateral crown stripes

Patterns on sides & flanks

Foraging location

Tail bobbing & angle to body

Eye ring, line through eye, cheek patch

Length of tail beyond undertail coverts

Patterns on throat & breast

For more resources on identifying and sketching warblers visit www.ChristineElder.com/warblers