Is your child a bully? 5.Make it clear that the behaviour is unacceptable but that you are there to support them. This does not mean that you are going to . Address reasons a shield your child from the communicate your disciplinary consequences of action plan to the their behaviour. Investigate school. Let them know 4:My child reasons for their behaviour you are involved and opens up to with your child care about the 7. Be a role model wellbeing of the other of appropriate me and admits party and your child. behaviour. to bullying behaviour 3:Take your concerns seriously and investigate it by having a conversation with your 8. Stay involved in 4.2 Make your child aware o 4.1 My chilsome of their behaviour th the process and 1:I suspect my might be rude/offensive to does not follow up with the child is a bully admit to way. Work hard on a trusting school and with relationship and monitor the bullying your child. situation. If you are going behaviour through a difficult time at home, organise emotional support for your child if STAY CALM Take the allegation seriously. Investigate it by having a conversation wit your child. Make it clear that the behaviour is unacceptable, but that you are there to also support C.1My child opens up to school/another me and admits parent informed to bullying me that my child behaviour s a bully D. Have a meeting with the school to C.My child does get more not admit to information. Work on facts. behaviour