

Materials and Supplies

This is a suggested list of materials for the Crewel Petals lesson. Feel free to adapt and substitute!

- Tan paper tile: I use Zentangle's official Renaissance tan tiles, but you can use kraft brown paper.
- Polychromos coloring pencils in 3 color families, red, green and blue. Red family: Alizarin Crimson and Light Cadmium Red. Teal blue family: Cobalt Green, Bluish Turquoise, and Light Cobalt Turquoise. Green Family: Pine Green and Light Green.
- Fine-liners in 3 colors, red, green and blue. I use Marvy Le Pen fineliner in Red, Green and Teal
- Black colored pencil. I use Polychromos black colored pencil
- White colored pencil. I use Prismacolor white colored pencil
- Pastel or charcoal white pencil. I use both White Faber Castell Pitt-Pastel or General's Charcoal White pencil
- White gel pen. I use White Sakura Gelly Roll #10
- Gold gel pen. I use Gold Gelly Roll Metallic
- Black thick inking pen. I use Sakura Micron Pigma PN (plastic nib)
- Optional: Tim Holtz Alcohol Ink Blending Pen
- Optional: Uniball Signo UM0120AC in green, blue and red (which is more like pink).
