Definition of culture

Culture consists of shared beliefs, values, and assumptions of a group of people who learn from one another and teach to others that their behaviors, attitudes, and perspectives are the correct ways to think, act, and feel. – Mai Moua, Culturally Intelligent Leadership