

Crystal Healing in Practice

So, what does a Crystal Healer do? The truth is that there is no right answer to this question. Crystal healing is a rapidly evolving field, and as previously discussed, each practitioner will contribute their own experience and knowledge to the collective practice of crystal and energy healing.

The practice of crystal healing lends itself beautifully to other holistic health and metaphysical modalities, including (but not limited to):

- Reiki
- Massage Therapy
- All Energy Healing Modalities
- Life Coaching
- Psychotherapy
- Aromatherapy
- Herbalism
- Tarot and Oracle Readings

... And virtually every other modality in existence! You are limited only by your imagination.

Crystal healing is also a complete healing modality in itself, and certainly works very well as a stand-alone practice.

Crystal Healers come from all walks of life, and serve a variety of clients. Here are some examples of the many services you can offer:

- In-person healing sessions
- Distance healing sessions
- Custom crystal grid creation
- Custom amulet and talisman empowerments
- Custom Medicine Bag creation
- Crystal consultations
- Workshops and lectures
- Writing
- Crystal essences and elixirs

You're limited only by your imagination!

Everybody is unique, and everybody will have something different to offer the world. This course will give you the knowledge and tools to offer a wide variety of crystal healing services, as well as empower you to create your own.

IMPORTANT: Please be aware that crystal healing, like all other forms of energy healing (including Reiki), is an unregulated practice. There is no professional college that regulates crystal healing education, nor is there a governing body that mandates the actions of Crystal Healers. Therefore, Crystal Healers are not accountable to any governing body. Each Crystal Healer is responsible to themselves and their clients, and it is imperative that they clarify their own set of professional ethics and abide by it at all times. Insurance is available for crystal healing, and is highly advised for all professional practitioners.
