

What are Sprints?

Sprints or Word Sprints are focused periods of time spent writing and ONLY writing.

It trains your brain to focus on one thing, especially when it becomes challenging.

Building this habit into your writing schedule will increase your word count and help you get over obstacles we all experience when writing.

Pomodoro Timer

