

Advanced phrasal verbs challenge 2 day 9 exercise

Make sentences with phrasal verbs. You might need to change the tense. If it's possible, put the object in the middle.

1. Remember to _____ (check carefully / your brakes) before you drive in the rain.
2. Let's _____ (look at to see if it's interesting or attractive / that new bar) this weekend.
3. I'm not great at maths. For me, it just doesn't _____ (be understood or realised) easily.
4. Let's just _____ (spend time relaxing and doing nothing in particular / the afternoon) in the garden.
5. My life has changed so much recently. It hasn't started to _____ (be understood or realised) yet.
6. Please don't _____ (act in a playful way to try to make people laugh). I'm trying to have a serious conversation with you.
7. There's always a lot of information on the first day, but it will _____ (be understood or realised) soon.
8. I'll ask Julie to _____ (look at something to see if it's interesting or attractive / the restaurant menu) before we book a table.

9. This project is very important so I'll probably _____ (check carefully / it) twice!
10. Please pay attention to the lesson. You can _____ (act in a playful way to try to make people laugh) after we finish studying.
11. I'm quite lazy, so I like to _____ (spend time relaxing and doing nothing in particular / my time) at home!
12. I used to _____ (act in a playful way to try to make people laugh) a lot more when I was a teenager.
13. Don't forget to _____ (check carefully / your work) at the end.
14. Julie has had a big shock. It will take time to _____ (be understood or realised).
15. You haven't used your bike in years. _____ (check carefully / it) before you ride it again.
16. When I was a teenager, I used to _____ (spend time relaxing and doing nothing in particular / my time) in my room.
17. Let's _____ (look at something to see if it's interesting or attractive / the vegetarian option) at the restaurant.
18. Sometimes it's nice not to have plans, and just _____ (spend time relaxing and doing nothing in particular / the weekend) at home.
19. I'd like to _____ (look at something to see if it's interesting or attractive / the area) before we look for a house there.
20. The boys love to _____ (act in a playful way to try to make people laugh) together at breaktime.

Answers

1. Remember to check your brakes over before you drive in the rain.
2. Let's scope that new bar out this weekend.
3. I'm not great at maths. For me, it just doesn't sink in easily.
4. Let's just idle the afternoon away in the garden.
5. My life has changed so much recently. It hasn't started to sink in yet.
6. Please don't joke around. I'm trying to have a serious conversation with you.
7. There's always a lot of information on the first day, but it will sink in soon.
8. I'll ask Julie to scope the restaurant menu out before we book a table.
9. This project is very important so I'll probably check it over twice!
10. Please pay attention to the lesson. You can joke around after we finish studying.
11. I'm quite lazy, so I like to idle my time away at home!
12. I used to joke around a lot more when I was a teenager.
13. Don't forget to check your work over at the end.
14. Julie has had a big shock. It will take time to sink in.
15. You haven't used your bike in years. Check it over before you ride it again.
16. When I was a teenager, I used to idle my time away in my room.
17. Let's scope the vegetarian option out at the restaurant.
18. Sometimes it's nice not to have plans and just idle the weekend away at home.
19. I'd like to scope the area out before we look for a house there.
20. The boys love to joke around together at breaktime.