

10:04:22 From S : There was the Black Magician at the 2012 Olympics at the opening ceremony hovering over the NHS beds full of children. Once you see it, it becomes obvious.

10:05:25 From B : What is the subconscious and what are the best subconscious therapies? Is the underworld the same as the subconscious?

10:05:33 From B : Do the different frequency therapies work such as binaural beats to induce a theta state and the frequencies to heal the chakras?

10:06:34 From S : I'm very aware of shedding, I know when someone has taken a jab if in their presence for sometime. Will this protect us against this?

10:07:47 From TK : When can we start paying for the Kanzo initiation and do you know the price yet? How long will it take?

10:07:55 From iPhone (59) : Is it possible to have a khodam or servitor created to protect dna and continually evolve it at the same time that can be created?

10:08:00 From ME to Peter Aziz(Direct Message) : I have sent this messages to Carrie the other day on mewee.. if you can ask Peter, Thank you.

I have some more questions for Peter regarding Djinnns if you pass them over to him for the next Q&A.

Q1: I am already working with the Naari Muwakkil on gaining my power.

Now I would like to work also with Nuri Mawakkils.

How can I connect with them? Is there any empowerment/ attunement for that? Or is it the same way like with connecting with Naari Muwakkil with chanting "Amal", and then putting intention to work with Nuri Muwakkil?

To what object is the best to bind Nuri Muwakkil? Knife or ring or something else?

Q2. Is it possible to communicate with djinnns also during the day? Or it always need to be dark/night?

Q3. Do we need to bind "fallen angels" to some item or we just use a bowl for communication?

10:08:19 From Se : How do spiritual energies/entities, such as dragon or angelic, interact with multidimensional beings?

10:08:19 From LOC : If it is subtle and happening at level many people are not aware of, how can humanity prevent this?

10:08:31 From M : I have been reading a lot about portals to other dimensions. People have experienced (at least those who live to tell the tale), "monsters" coming into our world. Can we prevent those portals from opening and if not how can we protect against these otherworldly creatures harming us as humans have no known "defense" like claws etc.

10:09:35 From Wellness Ambassador D : Peter do you offer in person Ultimate healing sessions in Thailand to clear these consciousness structures? if so how many days?

10:10:48 From Su : How can you protect yourself while you sleep and stop astral/dark forces attacking you via unpleasant dreams of low vibration?

10:12:01 From S : Reacted to "I have been reading ..." with 👍

10:13:51 From S : I heard dark forces are trying to take over stargates and there's one in Israel. Can you say why, what are they up to?

10:14:15 From B : can you explain the kundalini and how the chandali process works?

10:21:32 From S : Reacted to "If it is subtle and ..." with 👍

10:22:06 From EC : Hi Peter, could you please say a little bit more about the 2 new dragon courses and the process to receive them? thank you

10:22:15 From MD : Can everyone mute themselves, please? That would be good

10:22:15 From LS : What's your view on Alzheimer's- is it linked to this?

10:23:43 From M : It is said that Starseeds tend to be unlucky in many situations, be it love or otherwise. The universe which is currently run by archons and tailored to silence people with divine energy. So how can you as an individual combat this?

10:24:36 From JW : Im curious what you make of Autism and ADHD its been increasing alot since the big sneeze.

10:26:11 From S : Reacted to "Im curious what you ..." with 👍

10:27:02 From MD : For the Portal Guardian, I've put pictures of my friends and family as the target. Do I need to do this once a month, or is just setting up the plate enough and will the protection last for a long time?

10:31:33 From M : You mentioned a certain "Portal chart" can protect us from certain portals opening. However, apparently these portals open suddenly in forests, mountains etc out of the blue. If you know of David Paulides who writes about those vanishing without a trace, it would appear that one theory is that those people inadvertently (or deliberately) get sucked into a portal. 1) When you enter a portal, where do you go? 2) Do you have an opportunity to come back when you are in a portal and so how would you go about doing that?

10:38:36 From MM : If appropriate, could you sing the Lillith song that you sang last night?

10:39:21 From TK : Do we also get the abundance course when we buy the poverty destroying orb?

10:39:53 From B : what is the best way to heal the chakras?

10:42:49 From B : how about the metaverse, i mean fb amd watsup. i recently disintalled watsup and fb. i feel so released since that moment. i feel as if there was a copy of me and i was programmed by the metaverse a.i. to do what it expected based on my datas.

10:42:58 From M : You say that we create our own reality but I would like to challenge this. There are accounts of those who go camping and "unluckily" the entire family gets slaughtered by cryptids. I am pretty sure they didn't go on holiday intending to being murdered in such a horrific way. I am pretty sure they go on holiday to relax! There must be such a thing as "fate" where you have no control over what you create.

10:43:05 From MM : How can I tell where the portals are that I want to close with the portal commandeering plate? Is it simply where I feel most negative energies which is in certain relationships?

10:44:23 From A : Hello, how would i find an ultimate healer in my region i have tried but doesn't seen commonly advertised. Regards

10:46:12 From J : once i was attacked through a portal, or it looked like a different kind of dark, in the forest, one of my attackers ran me there and said they won't look for you her and really was against me lookingor stepping through, or even throwing anything//massive attack it was

10:46:44 From J : *here

10:48:53 From S : There's a young man in a crisis state, seemingly schizophrenic. He says things got a lot worse in the last 2 or so years. Could the jabs have exacerbated this underlying condition that's now out of control? There's self-destructive behaviour possibly sexual and the level of visions and hallucinations are becoming constant. Perhaps entities are pulling in more of that behaviour?

10:49:31 From TK : Replying to "You say that we crea..."

It's not only about what we create, there are karmic debts from this and previous lifetimes. Nothing happens here by chance, as it all first happens in the spirit world for whatever reason.

10:50:06 From MD : Reacted to "It's not only about ..." with 👍

10:52:49 From MM : Can I work with weaving threads in the chakras below the feet + is it 10th, 11th + 12th chakras to help me to learn to walk?

10:54:17 From Su : In the UK. They are talking about sending youngsters to war. How do they get out of this situation? And how can we help stop this magically? Thank you

10:57:17 From MF : Shall we visit crop circles or not?

10:57:22 From MD : Replying to "In the UK. They are ..."

This is happening in The Netherlands as well.

10:57:43 From ADG : will you also sell it?

11:01:00 From ME to Peter Aziz(Direct Message) : can we send this orb to family or friends and activate it or they need to listen this attunement?

11:01:16 From B , Coventry : Thank you Peter

11:01:19 From S : Will this be easily accessible on replay?

11:01:26 From ME : really strooong... woohuuu...

11:04:42 From Su : Thank you
