

What is your story?

Everyone has a story. Whether or not you were raised in church, the fact that you have purchased this course means you want more. You want to experience the power that comes with meditation in Christ.

You may see the need to understand who you are in Christ, so that no matter what winds blow or troubles rise, you stand firm in Him.

You will understand that your identity in Him is firm and no one can take that away from you. You will stand in the uniqueness through which He has created you to fulfill your God-given purpose and assignment.

Make a commitment to yourself to complete this course. Not only complete it but apply its principles to your life every day. Make it a habit to spend time and meditate with God and His Word. Having an accountability partner will also be beneficial, to help to push you along the way.

COMMITMENT TO SELF

Experience the power of His presence and His direction in your life.

I implore you to make the following commitment to yourself and sign it. At the end of the course, come back to it and remind yourself of your promise to you, for transformation in your life.

Fill out the following:

I want to learn how to meditate in Christ because...

What do I want to achieve in this course?

I will commit to applying that which I have learned for transformation and purpose in my life.
