

Grammar

'I will be doing' or 'I will have done' – Exercises

Choose one of these tenses to complete each sentence: Future Continuous (I'll be doing), Future Perfect (I'll have done), or Future Perfect Continuous (I'll have been doing).

Example:

She (wait) for me when I get there.

... She'll be waiting for me when I get there. ...

1. She (take) her driving test this time next week.
2. The package (arrive) by tomorrow.
3. By noon, he (sleep) for 24 hours.
4. By the time we arrive, everyone (leave).
5. Janet (stay) with us this Christmas.
6. By 30th June, she (work) here for 20 years.
7. This time next week, we (go) on holiday.
8. We (sell) our house in spring.
9. I (do) my homework by the time you return.
10. Adam (graduate) on the 5th of July.
11. I (not see) Jim tonight.
12. Where she (stay) when she returns?
13. The movie (not end) by nine o'clock.
14. What they (learn) by the end of the lesson?
15. By June, you (not live) here for a year?
16. How long he (drive) by midnight?