

In this example we see our formula in action starting with our root note "E". Remember, we are always counting the step movements, so from root to our 2 is the first time we count tone etc...

