

AMERICAN ACCENT
COACHING

with Audrey LeCrone

ai

SECTION 4 CLASS 1

WITH THIS FIRST DIPHTHONG, LEARN HOW TO REFER TO YOURSELF (I) IN THE AMERICAN ACCENT

ai

Spellings to look for:

i: I, hi, child, mind, find, liar, pint, island, idea, quiet, silent, kind, diamond, virus

i-e: time, fine, lines, chime, ride, five, dice, dime, like, pie, tie, die, life

igh: sigh, right, alright, fighter, sight, night, tightly

Less common spellings:

y: my, by, try, sky

ye: dye, bye, eye

uy: buy, guy

ig: sign

Sentences:

I've been trying to find the right size of diamond for her.

aiv been traing to faind the rait saiz of daimond for her.

It's finally time for Tyler to be quiet.

It's fainally taim for Tailer to be quaiet.

I'd like to buy five slices of pie.

aid laik to bai faiv slaices of pai.

The child tried to fight the guy with the sign.

The chaild traid to fat the gai with the sain.

HOMework

Using your own text or monologue, find the ai vowel. Mark it out and speak it out loud.