

A Prayer for the Forerunner's Authority

Lord, I thank You for giving your forerunner's authority in the end times. Teach me to exercise this authority in my life, my city, and my nation. Help me to pray and seek justice on the earth on behalf of others. "Praise be to the Lord, my Rock, who trains my hands for war, my fingers for battle" (Psalm 144:1). I thank You for giving your people authority to actually subdue powers and principalities (Ephesians 3:10). I choose to reign with You and walk in Your authority. "The Lord is a mighty warrior; the Lord is his name" (Exodus 15:3.) I am called to declare Your authority and rule the earth with You (Revelation 1:6). Through authoritative prayer, I can enforce Your victory on earth (Romans 16:20, Colossians 2:13-15) and fight for the nations (Psalm 2:7). Help me to wield my authority as I abide in You (John 15:7-8). Help me not to relax my vigilance in prayer. I want to stand my ground when evil comes (Ephesians 6:10-13). Teach me to fight for Your Kingdom in prayer. I choose to stand on Your promises for my family, neighborhood, city, and nation. Teach me to pray Your Word and focus on You during times of warfare. I choose to worship You because You are greater than all enemy attacks. Give me peace and joy in the midst of darkness (Colossians 3:15). I make a holy resolve to believe Your truth rather than Satan's lies. I want to rest in Your perfect peace even during warfare. Help me to have a strong handle on Your truth in order to have victory. I choose to take every thought captive to the obedience of Christ.

As a forerunner, I want to be Your voice and mouthpiece on earth. Help me to stand firm in my faith (I Corinthians 16:13). Help me to pray breakthrough prayers under the leading of Your Spirit. As I pray, help me to release Your power in the world. As you speak, help me to declare Your will on earth. As I travail, let my tears release Your power to break the darkness over the land. As I live, help me to model a dedicated life. As I pray, help me to be Your voice. I ask that You would help me to accomplish great things as Your mouthpiece. Jeremiah was called to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant (Jeremiah 1:9-10). Help me to do the same through my prayers and through my words. I ask You to touch my lips and put Your Words in my mouth. Your Spirit wants to flow through me as rivers of living water (John 7:38). As the days darken, teach me to be Your voice and speak Your truth. I am the voice of the Lord on the earth as I positively declare Your will through my prayers and my life. Heaven responds to my prayers. You listen and act on my behalf. Help me to be Your voice. Help me to radically obey You, and worship You in reverence and awe.

Good things happen in the spirit realm when I learn the secret of positive confession. I thank You that it brings breakthrough. I want to hear Your powerful voice above all the ungodly voices in the world. Empower me to be and declare Your will. Teach me to pray with expectant faith with boldness and confidence (Hebrews 13:6). I choose to hold firmly to the faith I profess (Hebrews 4:14). Lord, teach me the power of declarative prayer. I thank You that heaven responds to my prayers. You act on my behalf and change things in the spirit realm. I choose to confess Your truth with my mouth (Romans 10:10). I thank You that positive confession in my prayers, words, and actions brings breakthrough. I want to say and pray positive words that confess Your truth. Help me to stand in the gap and bring healing to the earth through my prayers. I want to be a repairer of broken walls and a restorer of streets with dwellings (Isaiah 58:12). I want to be Your voice for hope and life. Your voice is powerful and accomplishes great things. In Jesus name, amen.
