

JANUARY'S BOOK LIST 2020

Please note that I do not endorse everything I read. As part of The Woman School culture, take the good and choose to make it better. Perhaps you can learn from all the authors and write an even better book that can transform the world. Also, I have read most books here but some came highly recommended. Let us keep our hearts and minds open and remember to honor (not judge) the authors that have vulnerably given their hearts and souls to these books.
