BSR addresses all with a few powerful and emotional words related to the workshop and the positive transformation that people might be experiencing through this workshop.

Powerful round of Celebration with the energetic Signature Move “Shake your body and say YES”

BSR Sir describes his real life experiences of the magic of the Law Of Attraction(LOA) while he was watching the movie Secret and experiencing magic continuously. Focusing on health, wealth and anything the results came. LOA says Energy flows, where Focus goes.

Sir explains how the thought process of a kid works. Example of Mary Com: She was not clear in childhood about her future career. Similarly a 5 yrs old kid when asked about his future career he is not clear at that moment of time. His thoughts will decide what he will be tomorrow. We can not do much other than facilitating a good environment.

BSR Sir also shares a story of his friend Kharanshu and the thought process that influenced him to become a dentist. Whereas staying in the same family, his younger brothers, influenced by something else, chose a different profession. The environment was the same but achieved different results as per their individual thought processes.

Sir explains what it requires to be the Champion. There is only one difference between a Champion and an ordinary person only 1 % difference. To be a champion improve everyday by minimum 0.01% 0.5% or 0.1 % consistently,

BSR Sir once again emphasizes on the importance of KASSH.

Story of two boys Rahul and Yogesh on book reading:

Sir explains how the Subconscious Mind can be programmed if one decides to achieve the goal with this story. The situation being the same Rahul and Yogesh programming their SCM. Rahul starts reading a book before sleeping, after completing 2 pages his SCM diverts him to waste time in social media, then after he starts feeling sleepy to conclude that book reading causes sleepiness and he sleeps. The programming that is set in his SCM is that “Reading books is not at all possible, it makes feel drowsy”

On the contrary, Yogesh developed good habits of reading a book by creating a good environment. He programs his SCM by placing the right order to the Universe. After 2 hours of book reading, when he feels sleepy, he gets indulged in self-talk, he stops his SCM and rejects any such excuses that allow him to deviate from book reading. While feeling sleepy again, he prepares tea, washes his face but continues to read anyhow till he starts enjoying the activity of book reading. Now his SCM gets aligned with the Conscious Mind and everything seems very interesting. He enjoys the content. Comparison between Rahul and Yogesh. Our CM acted as the Parent that controlled the SCM (kid) , resulting in Yogesh completing 70-80 pages the next day, while Rahul just 2 pages. Yogesh finishes reading 1 book in 4-5 days finishes reading 1 book and in 1 yr 50 books, Rahul is in the same position. After 2-3 years Yogesh read 500-600 books, audios, courses, as his CM is aligned with SCM which was lazy at the beginning. Growth related activities are mostly boring so initially he trained his SCM for 3-4 days, forcefully programmed to feel the rest of the process interesting forever.

Sir also shares about the next season of The Magic Of Thinking Rich that will be after 4-5 months from now and the topics will not be the same instead of a next level skill.

Sir conveys a powerful message with this free workshop and that is to make small experiences meaningful.

BSR Sir moves to today’s topic that is in continuation to the Goal writing technique that was shared on Day 9 (yesterday)

As there are around 60000 thoughts that come in our mind every single day, it is important to attract what is actually required in life. Yesterday goal writing formula was shared in a specific manner and next Sir shares the exact procedure to follow while writing a specific Goal so that the Universe grants everything asked saying “Tathastu”s

Powerful Goal Writing Techniques that attracts the Subconscious Mind:

BSR Sir describes each step with supporting scientific reasons

- Goals should be written with a red ink pen on preferably Yellow paper YELLOW color is the color of Happiness and Prosperity while RED denotes Power.
- Universe has the most powerful shape that is OVAL. Examples of Oval shapes that have the highest power to generate life from inside (Andar ki Power). Example: Egg, Womb, etc. Write your Goal inside an oval shape using a red ink pen.
- Then draw arrows pointing on the surface of Oval.
- Write one goal on one paper.
- To attract the SCM, Include any spiritual symbol, pictures of any kind spiritual or family.
- Can use perfume of choice.
- Make 3 copies of 1 single Goal in separate sheets.
 - 1) 1st copy in bedroom at a place where your attention goes easily.
 - 2) 2nd in Pooja Room(can be visible or kept folded)
 - 3) Burn the 3rd copy to ashes, then mix it with water, pour it into the soil. This is done to give the five elements combined energy to your Goal as the Universe comprises the 5 basic elements Fire, Water, Air, Earth, Vacuum.

BSR Sir shared a few researches done on psychology:

Albert Paulo experimented with dogs where he did classical conditioning of the SCM by changing lunch time of the dogs and observing saliva secretion and Ringing bell before food. This is called Mind conditioning or SCM programming.

Another experiment of a Fox and two Goats kept in separate cages, where one Goat that could see the Fox from its cage dies of fear and the other who can't see the Fox lives without any effect on mind.

Important Announcements:

“IF YOU SUPPORT THE WORLD SELFLESSLY, THE WHOLE UNIVERSE SUPPORTS YOU ENDLESSLY”
