

Do

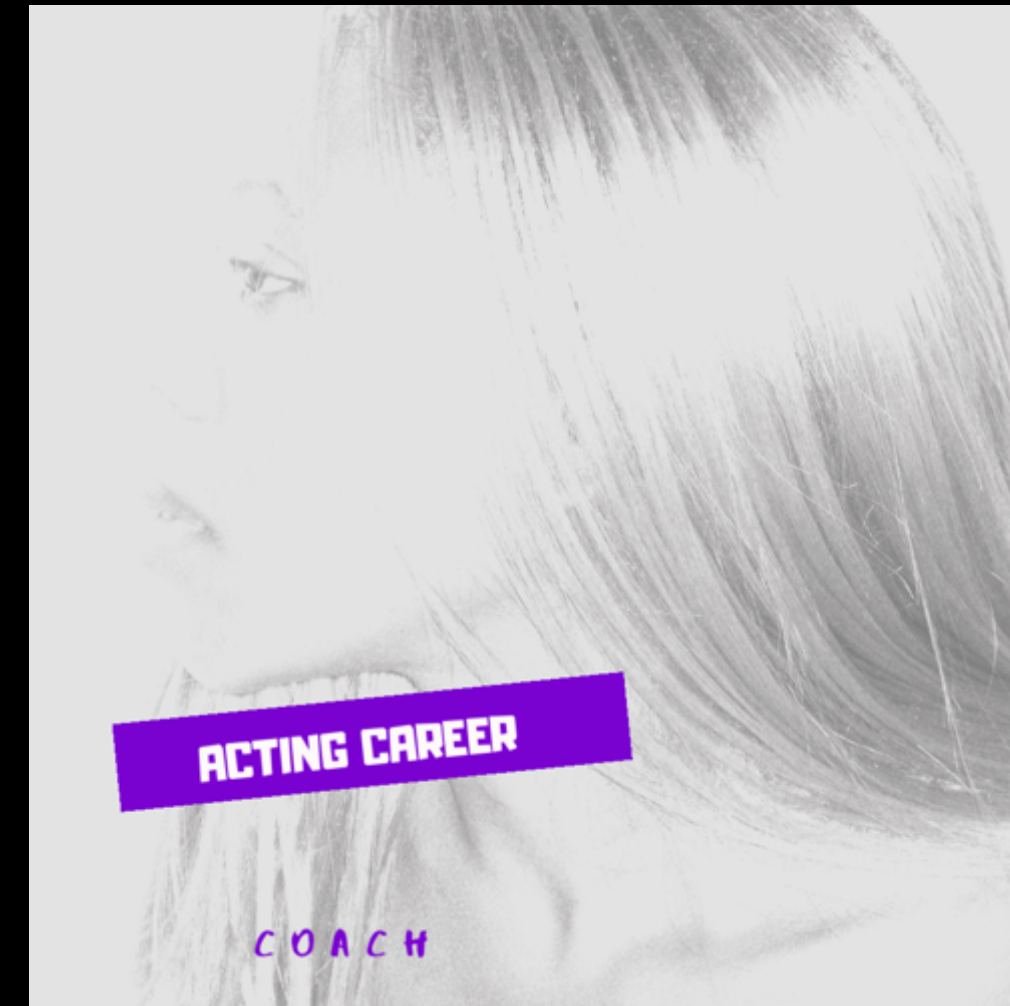

Do Imagine that the role was written for you and you are the best Actor to perform the monologue.

Do

Do go through the course in order.

Do

Do make the character your own.

Do

Do comment and ask questions at anytime in our Facebook community and in the comments section.

Do

Do create the most suitable performance for you specifically.

Don't

Don't watch the original actor to see how they delivered and then try to imitate them. Doing this will seriously hinder your learning and will defeat the purpose of doing this course.

Don't

Don't learn lines or work on delivery before doing the character study work and Method Acting Exercises.

Don't

Don't stress over the race or age of the actor who originally played your role for acting purposes is irrelevant do to the fact that none of the monologues are based on age or racial issues (aside from the specific children monologues)

Don't

Don't compare yourself to other actors performing the same monologue/s. Your talent is unique and individual. Keep it so!
