

Poverty Mindset Training Syllabus

Overview: The National Poverty Mindset Certification Program was developed to provide the latest data, tools, assessments, ideas and practical strategies to understand, address and ultimately end generational/ cyclical poverty. This training is for individuals and organizations (schools, prisons, youth clubs, shelters, churches, group homes, juvenile care, etc) that serve low-income, marginalized or under-served communities. Participants are guided through an original model and approach for the transformation of poverty delivered in an easy-to-learn design ready for implementation. This training is becoming popular as a district-wide initiative. It allows for congruent professional development done with the convenience of online access at a pace and time that work best for the participant.

Instructor Credentials: Hotep, MBA: Educational Success Strategist, Congressional Award-Winning Author, Educator & Consultant

Hotep is widely known for his proactive, “tough love” approach to education. He is a 20-year master teacher that has developed a reputation for requesting the most troubled students and transforming them into willing participants in their own education. Hotep is the founder of the MAKE A WAY program, a series of high relevancy curricula which are used in over 1000 schools throughout the U.S. His profound work has earned him nominations for the Presidential Citizen’s Award and as a CNN Hero. Hotep is also creator of the revolutionary Outcome Progression Model, which he uses to transform the climate and culture of poverty, excuse making and helplessness into one of empowerment, resiliency and success!

Course Content: Participants that successfully complete this course will be awarded a certificate reflecting 16 hours of training on the topic of working with low-income, marginalized or under-served communities. and poverty mindset-informed practices. In addition, participants will walk away with the following content and strategies:

- Origins of Poverty Mindset within various groups
- Misconceptions about common would-be solutions to poverty
- Understanding the difference between “Poor” and “Poverty”
- How race, gender and social class impacts Poverty Mindset
- Why poverty is often generational and cyclical
- Relationship building with students who suffer from poverty

- What at-risk behaviors result from Poverty Mindset
- A new approach to PBIS
- Methods for sustainably changing at-risk behaviors resulting from Poverty Mindset
- Building resilience and self-responsibility
- The role of Social-Emotional learning in transforming Poverty Mindset
- The Poverty Mindset Research Institute's model for transforming Poverty Mindset

 Participants who successfully complete this course offering from The Poverty Mindset Research Institute are eligible for CEU credits from most states and school districts. However, since all states and districts can have differing requirements, it is recommended that you check with your district and/or state licensing agency to determine eligibility before enrolling in the National Poverty Mindset Certification course.

Contact:

Please visit www.povertymindset.com to register.

Email for group pricing and registration:

info@povertymindset.com