

Materials needed for this course bundle

Drawing the Buddha Face! + White Tara Thangka Course

You only need 4 basic materials for both courses, only the size of paper may differ:

1) Paper

Buddha Face

Any size is possible but I advise you to start with size A3 / 12"x18" / tabloid / ledger.

Weight: preferably minimum 160 g/m², or 80lb / 130gsm (I always use 200g/m²)

In US: Blick Art Materials / Amazon.COM or at: Amazon.CA / Amazon.UK / Amazon.FR / Amazon.DE

Of course you can also use (part or half of) a larger paper:

White Tara

For the drawing of this Buddha you need a larger sheet of good drawing paper in cm or inches:

Size: Best size 50x65cm / 50x70cm (If this is not available choose size A2 or size A1)

US paper sizes: Minimum size 18"x24" or larger (such as 20"x30" or 22"x30", more suitable if you want to draw for ex. a large landscape around your Buddha)

Weight: preferably minimum 160 g/m², or 80lb / 130gsm (I always use 200g/m²)

In US: Blick Art Materials / Amazon.COM or at: Amazon.CA / Amazon.UK / Amazon.FR / Amazon.DE

2) Pencil

Regular B&W pencil HB and/or a mechanical pencil (0.5mm)

In US: Blick Art Materials / Amazon.COM or at: Amazon.CA / Amazon.UK / Amazon.FR / Amazon.DE

3) Eraser

Regular eraser

In US: Blick Art Materials / Amazon.COM or at: Amazon.CA / Amazon.UK / Amazon.FR / Amazon.DE

In addition it's nice to have a very fine eraser, my favorite is Tombow Mono Zero (the round one):

In US: Blick Art Materials / Amazon.COM or at: Amazon.CA / Amazon.UK / Amazon.FR / Amazon.DE

4) Ruler

Preferred size of 50cm / 18" or 24"

Note: for thangka it's easiest to work with centimeters. Working with inches is possible but gives you less options proportion wise. The following rulers have both inches and centimeters:

In US: Blick Art Materials / Amazon.COM or at: Amazon.CA / Amazon.UK / Amazon.FR / Amazon.DE

Optional

Drawing Compass

If you want to buy one, choose one that can make a wide circle, or with an extension part.

In US: Blick Art Materials / Amazon.COM or at: Amazon.CA / Amazon.UK / Amazon.FR / Amazon.DE

Optional

Coloured Pencils

If you want to colour your Buddha Face you can use whatever coloured pencils you've got, but for the best results a good brand is advised, as those pencils have more pigment which is good for shading.

I have been using the following brands for many years and often use a set of 48 pencils:

Prismacolor Premier

In US: Blick Art Materials / Amazon.COM or at: Amazon.CA / Amazon.UK / Amazon.FR / Amazon.DE

Faber Castell Polychromos

In US: Blick Art Materials / Amazon.COM or at: Amazon.CA / Amazon.UK / Amazon.FR / Amazon.DE

Bruynzeel Design

Amazon.COM / Amazon.CA / Amazon.UK / Amazon.FR / Amazon.DE

If you are in the US, Blick Studio Artists' Colored Pencils also make a good choice

And lastly: if you want to make notes during the courses please have your pen & paper ready.

Happy drawing!
