

Grammar

Quantifiers – Exercises

Exercise 1: Choose between 'much' and 'many' to complete each sentence.

Example:

I don't eat ..... much ..... bread.

1. Does he have ..... clients?
2. We bought too ..... vegetables.
3. Did you get ..... sleep last night?
4. There's so ..... food in the fridge.
5. He doesn't speak ..... Russian.
6. I didn't study as ..... languages as you.
7. How ..... pears did you eat?
8. Did they sell ..... cakes?
9. Did you drink too ..... coffee last night?
10. I met so ..... people at the conference.
11. Did you see ..... children there?
12. There aren't ..... sheep in this field.
13. How ..... money did you spend?
14. He didn't have ..... information about it.
15. We didn't make ..... progress yesterday.

Exercise 2: Choose between 'little' and 'few' to complete each sentence.

Example:

I'd like a ..... little ..... water, please.

1. We had so ..... snow last year.
2. We bought too ..... cucumbers.

3. I got very ..... rest last week.
4. We saw very ..... cars on the road.
5. I speak a ..... Chinese.
6. She knows a ..... German words.
7. I must drink as ..... coffee as possible.
8. I have too ..... time for my hobbies.
9. Could you give me a ..... moments please?
10. There were very ..... people at the cinema.
11. I spoke to a ..... children.
12. Very ..... men come to this class.
13. There's so ..... traffic on this road.
14. They found very ..... evidence against him.
15. There's too ..... furniture in this room.