

Impressionism in Music

7.691911

Gena Mayo ~ Music in Our Homeschool

	words to fill in the	ha blanka from what was lagrand in the workshop:		he blanks from what you learned in the _	tion unresolved	harmonies, Claude Monet, Clair du Lune,
-	Arabesque No. 1, Maurice Ravel, 1890-1930, steady beat, Claude
Debussy. w	hole tone scale,	rubato.
After	Claude Monet	painted "Impression, Sunrise," t	the new Impres	sionistic style eventually influenced composers	such as	Claude Debussy and Maurice	e Ravel	. This new musical era flourished from	1890-1930
.4 1 1.		1 1 1 1 •
steady beautime		s you would have heard in most music of the time	e.	is you would have heard in most music tic scales such as the of the time. They also	e. used some exot	cic scales such as the of the time  They also  whole te	e. used some exotone scale	cic scales such as the of the time  They also  whole te	e.  used some exotone scale her features of	ic scales such as the , pentatonic scale, and archaic church
They also whole to modes. Other parallel reconstructions	used some exotone scale her features of motion	ic scales such as the, pentatonic scale, and archaic church Impressionistic music include
They also whole to modes. Other parallel reconstructions	used some exotone scale her features of motion	ic scales such as the , pentatonic scale, and archaic church Impressionistic music include andunresolved harmonies, which
They also whole to modes. Other parallel resound typic	used some exotone scale her features of motion cal to us today	ic scales such as the , pentatonic scale, and archaic church Impressionistic music include andunresolved harmonies, which
They also whole to modes. Oth parallel resound typical sound typical sou	used some exotone scale her features of motion cal to us today of beautiful Imp	ic scales such as the, pentatonic scale, and archaic church Impressionistic music include and, which but were very new at the time.  ressionistic pieces include Debussy's
They also whole to modes. Other parallel resound typic	used some exotone scale her features of motion cal to us today of beautiful Imp	ic scales such as the, pentatonic scale, and archaic church Impressionistic music include and, which but were very new at the time.  ressionistic pieces include Debussy's u_Lune and

Get a free Sampler Music Appreciation course here: MusicinOurHomeschool.com/Sampler