

COME BACK TO THE DANCE FLOOR AND BREATHE AGAIN

Prophetic Word from Dawn Churchill

For the Spirit of The Lord says,

“Come back to the dance floor and worship Me. Come back to the dance floor and enter into My Presence. Sit at My feet and listen as I sing sweet songs of love and compassion over you. Enter into the throne room, take your place on the dance floor, and DANCE with me, says the Lord.

Many hearts have grown cold, apathetic, or are languishing from the pain of betrayal. Put on your royal garments. Enter the Banquet Hall. See the lavish table of good things I have prepared for you. Come sit with Me, dine with Me, and dance with Me again.

You dance with Me in the sanctuary, but not so much in your private prayer time alone. Strike the music, forget the world around you. Find respite in My Presence and DANCE, yes dance!

Dance away the spirit of heaviness. Dance away the spirit of depression. Dance away all anger and frustration. Dance away all fear and anxiety.

COME BACK TO THE DANCE FLOOR AND BREATHE AGAIN

Let the dance I have anointed you with, be the mechanism of releasing those things that keep your heart bound in anger, or fear, or apathy. Take my hand. Let Me lead and guide you. Learn to dance the dance of joy and laughter and rejoicing once again."

Zephaniah 3:17; Isaiah 61:1-4; Song of Solomon 2

(central theme - Intimacy with God)