

RABBIT

ADVANCED

- Most often missed high or in front
- Pass-through and pull-away is a great technique for rabbits to match speed
- You must match its speed until it presents itself to be “vulnerable”
- Do not define a specific break point – be able to shoot when the target tells you to fire so that you don’t get “hopped”
- They are always slower than they look
- Barrel awareness might be required

