

INSTRUCTIONS:

For this reading task, you are required to find the key information in the following article (document attached).

You need to:

- Read the article
- Take notes
- Decide what is the key information
- Type the key information and save it in a Word document

You do not need to email this to me.

On the registration form for this week's webinar (Saturday), I will ask you to submit the key notes that you made. You can just copy and paste your notes from the Word document. This will allow me to see what you have written & to evaluate the progression of your reading skills.

We will further discuss this article in Saturday's webinar.
