Psalm 9:4-7

For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging right. 5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever. 6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them. 7 But the Lord shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

Psalm 11:4-7

The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men. 5 The Lord trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth. 6 Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup. 7 For the righteous Lord loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.

Genesis 28:17-19

QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER

1 Blessings bring exposure. There are foundation-building moments that happen in the private as you establish altars and deepen your relationship with the Lord. How can you maintain that same momentum and perseverance within your faith once the altars are established and the Lord rains down His blessings?

2 What Bible verse really impacted you from this teaching?

3 Reflect on how you are doing the work of tearing down altars, sowing into the Kingdom, and establishing altars that belong to the Lord. What does this process look like specifically within one aspect of your life, whether in business, ministry, family, etc?
