

Series overview

Using university-level academic content, TOEFL ITP evaluates skills in four areas:

Listening Comprehension

The ability to understand English, including short and long conversations and short talks or lectures.

Reading Comprehension

The ability to read and understand short passages.

Structure and Written Expression

The ability to recognize standard written English — early writing skills.

Speaking Comprehension

The ability to speak English in everyday situations as well as some basic campus and academic settings.

Be confident in students' skills

When you power your classroom with the TOEFL ITP®, you prepare your students to stand out confidently in English. Plus, you can prove they are equipped with the English-language skills to succeed globally, expanding their opportunities and strengthening your institution's reputation.

The TOEFL ITP assessments share the same rich heritage as the TOEFL iBT® test — the world's most widely respected English-language assessment. Delivering superior score accuracy in English-language measurement, TOEFL ITP can guide your decisions for placement, monitoring progress, evaluation, exit testing and other situations.

Add power to your program

The TOEFL ITP tests

- Empower your teachers — Data-driven insights about student performance allow you to make confident decisions. Plus, test how and when you need to with multiple formats and in-country support.
- Help your institution improve — Measure your students' real ability to communicate in English and reveal your program's impact on learning.
- Give your students more opportunities — Scores are accepted by short-term non-degree and collaborative international programs and scholarship programs around the world.

Providing trusted and valid English proficiency scores for over five decades.

Backed by over 60 years of research and assessment development experience, TOEFL ITP is trusted by more than 2,500 institutions in over 50 countries around the world.

Speaking

The TOEFL ITP Speaking test¹ evaluates the skills needed to speak English in everyday situations, as well as some basic campus and academic settings — making it an ideal way for in-country institutions to measure a student's capabilities. It consists of one read-aloud task, two independent speaking tasks and one integrated speaking task.

- Testing Time: Approximately 15 minutes
- Number of Tasks: 4
- Total Score Range: 31–68
- CEFR Level: A2–C1

¹The Speaking test is only available with the digital TOEFL ITP Level 1 or Level 2 test.

Achievement certificates awarded corresponding to a CEFR level:
C1 (Gold certificate), B2 (Silver certificate) and B1 (Bronze certificate).
