A person wearing a denim jacket, a black cap, and dark pants is running away from the camera down a city street. Their arms are raised in a gesture of prayer or praise. The street is lined with brick buildings, bare trees, and green street lamps. A white van with 'Professional Painting & Cleaning' and '931-444-4210' is parked on the right. The scene is captured in a cinematic style with warm, golden-hour lighting.
